

JEANNE MASSETH

Jeanne has a heart for developing professional potential through mentoring. Her career spans nearly 20 years of workplace learning expertise. At Legacy Talent Development Jeanne specializes in high-impact mentoring and leadership growth initiatives. Her collaborative approach to consulting and facilitation tailors learning solutions to each organization's most critical talent challenges. Together with her clients, Jeanne implements robust learning experiences that retain more engaged, effective employees.

As a life-long learner and thought leader Jeanne enjoys sharing talent development best practices/trends with her clients. She holds a Master's degree in Business and completed postgraduate work in Educational Leadership. Jeanne is professionally certified as a facilitator, consultant, and trainer in addition to maintaining SPHR and SHRM-SCP designations.

During her free time Jeanne can be found cheering on children's activities, traveling, running and relaxing on the Missouri River. She especially savors precious family time with her husband and their two incredible children.
